Protect Each Other! Move Closer to 0 Infection Risk!

Mask Code: Consideration for Others

~Protect each other, protect your precious families, protect the workers of the prefecture. Spread that kindness to the workers in the medical field as well~

○When chatting: “masked chatting”

People have a tendency to let their guard down while on break, so be sure to pay extra attention during such times.

Case① Infections occurring from chats had while in the dressing room or at the smoking area

○When eating: “masked meals”

Only remove your mask when eating or drinking, including outdoor meals

Case② Meeting up with 5 friends and their families for a barbecue, resulting in all members getting infected.

○Masking up at home

Do this for two weeks in the case that you are residing with family that has visited or has come from areas with high infection rates.

Case③ College students visiting home from areas with high infection rates, resulting in their parents and grandparents getting infected
